THE GLATZEL FAMILY TREE

 Glatzel Ancestors in Europe

This booklet presents a list of names, dates of births, marriages and deaths of the Glatzel ancestry. Most of this information was obtained from the old church register at Neustadt, Germany. This family-tree booklet is arranged with each child in each family of each generation, beginning with the oldest down to the youngest.

I (known) Generation

Glatzel, Josef born in 1742, at Leobschutz, Casimier County, in the Province of Ober-Schlesien, located on the eastern border of Germany. Legend of Josef; "Erbscholzen", meaning a continuation of Mayor, always handed down from father to son.

Children

Glatzel, Siegfried born in 1767 see below and p. 2

Most likely, there were more children, one of whom who could have been the grand-father of Johann, Albert and Anna Glatzel. Johann married Margaret Reagel. Some of their descendants immigrated to Norwood, Minn. And those of Albert, are in Toledo, Ohio, Joliet, Ill., Ann Arbor and Albion, Mich. And those of Anna, who married Mr. Fiebel, are living in the vicinity of Detroit, Mich.

Glatzel, Anna J. Gertrude	b. Dec. 31, 1826

This family was noted to be wealthy and belonged to the nobility. Their first born son, Wilhelm, was carried to church for his baptism on a special cushion made of silk. When he was a young boy, his playmates greeted him respectfully by removing their hats for his nobility. Wilhelm was not yet five years old when his father died. His mother then married August Heyn, (see next page). Mr. Heyn was an easy going man and lived rather lavishly in promoting many extravagant entertainments for his many friends. And as the Glatzel children grew older, they began to realize that their one time cloth factory (now managed by their step-father) had utterly failed. Thus their wealth and nobility had soon vanished. Since having no desire to live in poverty and humility, they decided to leave their home. Wilhelm enlisted in the German military, while his sister, Anna, entered the convent of the Sisters of Mercy.

GLATZEL ANCESTORS in AMERICA

During the German rebellion of 1848, Sergeant (?) Wilhelm Glatzel suffered minor powder burns on his face which eventually effected his eyesight. Upon being discharged at the end of the war he expected a compensation. After working for more than two years in a bakery and waiting for a compensation (which never came) he became disgruntled and decided to come to America. Accordingly, he and his wife, Clara (Habel), immigrated to America in 1850. They first lived at St. Henry, Ohio, and later at St. Paul, Minn. And in 1853, they settled on their future homestead at Chaska, Minn., which has been in the Glatzel family ever since. Wilhelm was actually totally blind for the last thirty-two years of his life.
